From London / Exeter

Leave the M5 at junction 18 (Avonmouth). Keep to the nearside lane signposted "A4 - Bristol" until you come to a large roundabout with traffic lights, where the motorway ends.

Take the first left turning (B4054 – Shirehampton). Then turn left at the first set of non-pedestrian traffic lights. This road is Kings Weston Avenue. After quarter of a mile the road name changes to Long Cross. Continue along Long Cross for about 1½ miles. Corbet Close is on the left hand side (off Atwood Drive) immediately behind a pub called "The Long Cross".

From Bristol City Centre

Drive along Cumberland Basin, under Clifton Suspension Bridge and continue along Portway towards Avonmouth. The road will split into three lanes. Take the right hand lane and turn right at the traffic lights into Sylvan Way. Continue to the next set of traffic lights and turn left. Continue along a country lane for approximately 1½ miles and as you pass a 30mph flashing speed sign, turn left into Long Cross.

Continue down the hill a little way until you see "The Long Cross" pub on the right hand side. Turn right just past the pub and then right again and you will see our offices on the right hand side.

Public Transport

The 40 or 40a bus leaves the city centre every 15 minutes from the bus stop opposite Colston Avenue. The journey will take approximately 45 minutes.

Ask for the stop opposite "The Long Cross" pub. The offices are behind the pub.

Most buses are accessible to wheelchair users.

We have four visitors' spaces on the right hand side as you drive in and a staff/visitor car park on the left hand side.
